

JENNIFER VOTE HORTON BUNCOMBE COUNTY COMMISSIONER

Your advocate for Communities, Mental Health and Progress.

Communities: Jennifer is committed to building strong communities by focusing on improving infrastructure, supporting businesses, and fostering environments where residents thrive.

Mental Health: Jennifer recognizes the crucial importance of comprehensive mental health resources. As an advocate, she supports initiatives that destigmatize mental health and believes in education, and implementing programs that have proven to be successful and are based on best practices. Her commitment is to ensure a healthier and more supportive community through these impactful strategies.

Progress: With a vision for sustainable growth, economic development, education, and the resources we cherish. Jennifer is dedicated to initiatives that ensure a brighter future for all residents.

A proud native of Buncombe County, born and raised in Swannanoa, Jennifer now resides in Fairview with her husband and three children. Her passion for the community is deeply rooted. Forged from personal experiences of overcoming childhood challenges of exposure to domestic violence and substance abuse which resulted in her dropping out of high school at age sixteen due to the weight of her unfortunate circumstances. Despite no financial help from her family Jennifer returned to school, earned her GED, and continued her educational journey, obtaining certifications as a Habilitation Technician and Certified Nursing Assistant. In spite of being a young mother, Jennifer again returned to school where she studied as a Paramedic student then went on to obtain a Licensed Practical Nurse Diploma. Her educational pursuits culminated in achieving an Associate in Applied Science in Nursing Degree and Assisted Living Administrator Certification.

Today, as the Owner/CEO of five assisted living family care homes in Buncombe County, Jennifer understands the significance of strong leadership, responsible decision-making, and community engagement. She brings a robust work ethic and unwavering commitment to public service, poised to contribute to the Buncombe County Commission.

Jennifer Horton is determined to ensure our County not only survives but thrives. Your vote for Jennifer Horton is a vote for a strong, and vibrant Buncombe County.
